Founded in 1952, the Museum is located on the bank of the South Branch of the Raritan River and is housed in an 1836 stone grist mill that is on the National and State Historic Registers.

Committed to providing programs of excellence, the Museum offers changing exhibitions of contemporary art, craft, and design and has a growing collection of works on paper. The Museum's education program includes studio classes for children and adults, workshops, summer art camps, lectures, exhibition tours, and other interpretive and outreach experiences.

Made possible by funds from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts, a partner agency of the National Endowment for the Arts.

The Museum's programs are made possible in part by funds from the Geraldine R. Dodge Foundation, Hunterdon County Cultural & Heritage Commission, corporations, foundations, and individuals. The Hunterdon Art Museum is a wheelchair accessible space. Publications are available in large print. Patrons who are deaf, hard of hearing or speech impaired may contact the Museum through the New Jersey Relay Service at (TTY) 1 (800) 852-7899.
