

All classes will take place on the Museum's Toshiko Takaezu Terrace.

HAM will notify yoga students no later than one hour before their class is scheduled to begin if it is being cancelled because of bad weather.

If HAM cannot reschedule a class that the Museum has cancelled or if a student cannot attend a rescheduled class, we will provide either a refund or credit (student's choice) toward an upcoming yoga class.

Students missing classes by their own decision or withdrawing after classes begin will not receive a refund, credit or make up day.

HAM will honor 10 packs that were purchased prior to the Museum closing for Covid-19. To use a 10 pack students must email Joan@hunterdonartmuseum before registering.

Due to Covid-19, all students must bring their own mat or chair, as well as any other equipment they might want such as blocks.

All students will need to social distance, staying at least 6 feet apart when arms are outstretched.

As the Museum will be closed during yoga classes, no bathrooms will be available.
